

~~Conf Pam 80~~ (D)

Conf
Pam
80

Duke University Libraries
Appeal in behal
Conf Pam q#81
D99061052W

#81

Not listed

APPEAL IN BEHALF

OF THE

"SOLDIERS' WAYSIDE HOME,"

OF

CHARLESTON, S. C.

The Executive Committee of the Soldiers' Wayside Home, are compelled to solicit aid from their fellow citizens of Charleston, and the State at large, for the support of that Institution.

The benefits which the Wayside Home have rendered the Soldiers of the Confederate States, have not been confined to any one Department, but members of every State have felt the influence of its great charity.

Since its organization on the 1st of August, 1863, to the present time, 7th Sept., 1864, it has fed and provided a home for 43,000 Soldiers of all grades; it has been the means of relieving hunger, cold and nakedness; it has protected the wives and daughters of Soldiers visiting their relatives in Hospitals or camp, and its funds have conveyed the weary and destitute to their homes.

Nor is this all! Thousands unfit for camp duty—late inmates of a Hospital—have had their strength recuperated, and their health improved, who, without its fostering care, would, perhaps, have been lost to their country.

While the State and Confederate Government applaud its usefulness, they have not contributed one dollar towards its support.

The "SOLDIERS' WAYSIDE HOME" is peculiarly under the protection of the people of South Carolina, and to them the Executive Committee appeal for assistance in this moment of jeopardy and its struggle for existence.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

GEO. ROBERTSON, Chairman,

JAMES S. GIBBES, Treasurer,

THEO. HUCHET, Secretary.

T. D. WAGNER,
Maj. E. WILLIS,
W. H. HOUSTON,

W. B. YATES,
HENRY MEYERS,
BENJ. MORDECAI.

Donations and Money should be sent to the Treasurer, and all provisions marked "WAYSIDE HOME."

Charleston, S. C., September 8th, 1864.

RBR
Conf
Pam
90
#81

APPEAL IN BEHALF OF THE "SOLDIERS' WAYSIDE HOME," OF CHARLESTON, S. C.

The Executive Committee of the Soldiers' Wayside Home, are compelled to solicit aid from their fellow citizens of Charleston, and the State at large, for the support of that Institution.

The benefits which the Wayside Home have rendered the Soldiers of the Confederate States, have not been confined to any one Department, but members of every State have felt the influence of its great charity.
Since its organization on the 1st of August, 1863, to the present time, 7th Sept., 1864, it has fed and provided a home for 43,000 Soldiers of all grades; it has been the means of relieving hunger, cold and nakedness; it has protected the wives and daughters of Soldiers visiting their relatives in Hospitals or camp, and its funds have conveyed the weary and destitute to their homes.

Nor is this all! Thousands unfit for camp duty—late inmates of a Hospital—have had their strength recuperated, and their health improved, who, without its fostering care, would, perhaps, have been lost to their country.

While the State and Confederate Government applaud its usefulness,
they have not contributed one dollar towards its support.

The "SOLDIERS' WAYSIDE HOME" is peculiarly under the protection of the people of South Carolina, and to them the Executive Committee appeal for assistance in this moment of jeopardy and its struggle for existence.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

- | | |
|---------------------------|----------------------------|
| GEO. ROBERTSON, Chairman, | JAMES S. GIBBS, Treasurer, |
| W. H. HOUSTON, | HENRY MEYERS, |
| M. E. WILLS, | W. B. YATES, |
| T. D. WAGNER, | BENJ. MORDECAI, |
| THEO. HUCHET, Secretary, | |

Donations and Money should be sent to the Treasurer, and all provisions marked "WAYSIDE HOME."
Charleston, S. C., September 24th, 1864.

permalife.
pH 8.5